

IEEE smart village (ISV) supports the world's energy impoverished communities by providing a comprehensive solution, A plan that will impact a significant number of people with electricity, education and communication.

Those willing to apply should be interested in giving back to the society.

Requirements:

Should have basic knowledge of hardware and / or software.

ISV Departments:

1. Communication-tech:

In this department, you 'll be working around communication system and GSM technology

2. Data-handling:

Data Processing, Server Handling

Prerequisites: Frontend and /or Backend

Building a website and using data visualization skills operating on outputs

3. Education:

Conducting STEM Lectures, teaching basic education as well as awareness about general problems.

4. Solar team:

Working around implementation and development of solar panels.

For more information, visit the website: <https://smartvillage.ieee.org/>